FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE...

CATHOLIC CHARITIES OF SOUTHERN NEVADA NAMES NEW VICE PRESIDENT FOR DEVELOPMENT

Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada is proud to name Patricia W. Falvey as its new Vice President for Development. Falvey has been with the agency for 15 months. As Vice President for Development, Falvey will direct all of Catholic Charities' fundraising efforts and be an active participant in development of the agency's strategic plans. She will lead all activities associated with the annual fund, public, corporate and foundation relations, special events, individual giving, endowment, planned giving, and communications and marketing.

"This is a very important day for Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada" remarked Chief Executive Officer Monsignor Patrick R. Leary. "As we enter into an exciting new era, having the right senior management team in place is absolutely vital. Pat brings enormous experience as a fundraiser and leader. She also brings a great passion to the task of finding new sources of support for the organization. With her creative energy, she continues to be a tremendous asset to our team." He continues, "I'm also delighted to welcome Pat to the senior management team."

Commenting on her appointment, Falvey stated, "The opportunity to be part of the senior management of Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada is very exciting. I am thrilled to work with the past and future funders of the organization."

Falvey has an extensive background in both development and leadership experience. She served in the Air Force and Air Force Reserves for 24 years. Falvey served in various positions in higher education advancement and development after her military retirement. She is a recent graduate of the Leadership Las Vegas 2011 class.

Catholic Charities is one of the largest nonprofit social service providers in the state, offering the most comprehensive range of human services. Catholic Charities includes diverse programs designed to help people, from infants to seniors, regardless of race, religion, or creed.
