FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE...

CHRISTMAS DINNER FOR THE HOMELESS AND NEEDY

- WHO: Catholic Charities of Southern Nevada
- WHAT: Christmas Dinner for the homeless and needy
- WHEN: Sunday, December 25, 2011, 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
- WHERE: Catholic Charities St. Vincent Lied Dining Facility
1501 Las Vegas Blvd N. (Owens and Las Vegas Blvd. North)

A traditional Christmas dinner will be served to the homeless and needy on Christmas Day. Approximately 1,700 meals are expected to be served. The doors are open to anyone who would like to attend. More than 150 volunteers will serve the meals. The Catholic Charities St. Vincent Lied Dining Facility has been serving meals to the community's homeless and needy men, woman and children since 1965.

Visual Opportunities: Hundreds of men, women and children receiving a Christmas Day meal, for some it will be the only meal they eat that day.
